

Exercise 2

A. Complete the sentences using “will”:

1. This judge _____ (shout) loudly when he'll be here.
2. They _____ (hug) each other when they'll meet.
3. I _____ (eat) strawberries tomorrow.
4. She _____ (learn) at home next week.
5. George _____ (have) breakfast with me next Monday.
6. We _____ (celebrate) his birthday next year.

B. Complete the sentences using “be + going to”:

1. This judge _____ (shout) loudly when he'll be here.
2. They _____ (hug) each other when they'll meet.
3. I _____ (eat) strawberries tomorrow.
4. She _____ (learn) at home next week.
5. George _____ (have) breakfast with me next Monday.
6. We _____ (celebrate) his birthday next year.

C. Turn the sentences to negative using “will”:

1. David’s mom will wait for him at the station tomorrow.

2. The children will play in the schoolyard this afternoon.

3. Lots of guests will come to the new restaurant tonight.

4. The lawyer will shout at her the minute she’ll come.

5. His aunt will bake a cake for him next weekend.

6. They will pass the border silently next month.

D. Turn the sentences to negative using “be + going to”:

1. David’s mom is going to wait for him at the station tomorrow.

2. The children are going to play in the schoolyard this afternoon.

3. Lots of guests are going to come to the new restaurant tonight.

4. The lawyer is going to shout at her the minute she’ll come.

5. His aunt is going to bake a cake for him next weekend.

6. They are going to pass the border silently next month.

E. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “will”:

1. This man will arrive to the hospital next week.

2. My son will argue with his sister again tonight.

3. The dancer will dance Salsa dances this evening.

4. They will listen to music at the weekend.

5. The birds will stay in hot countries this winter.

6. David’s pupils will make their homework tomorrow.

F. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “be + going to”:

1. This man is going to arrive to the hospital next week.

2. My son is going to argue with his sister again tonight.

3. The dancer is going to dance Salsa dances this evening.

4. They are going to listen to music at the weekend.

5. The birds are going to stay in hot countries this winter.

6. David’s pupils are going to make their homework tomorrow.

G. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “will”::

1. The detective will ask a lot of questions tomorrow.

2. Doris will read this book when she'll have free time.

3. This pupil will copy his friend's homework because he didn't do them by himself.

4. The pretty secretary will serve the audience politely.

5. This criminal will rob the bank tonight.

6. He will give his weapon to the guard tomorrow.

H. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “be + going to”:

1. The detective is going to ask a lot of questions tomorrow.

2. Doris is going to read this book when she'll have free time.

3. This pupil is going to copy his friend's homework because he didn't do them by himself.

4. The pretty secretary is going to serve the audience politely.

5. This criminal is going to rob the bank tonight.

6. He is going to give his weapon to the guard tomorrow.

I. Ask questions about the subject using “will”:

1. They will close their shop in half an hour.

2. This old woman will cure the wounded bird.

3. My wife will cook in the kitchen when you’ll come.

4. The school manager will punish them tomorrow.

5. Children will jump on this trampoline next weekend.

6. Little kids will play in the school yard tomorrow.

J. Ask questions about the subject using “be + going to”:

1. They are going to close their shop in half an hour.

2. This old woman is going to cure the wounded bird.

3. My wife is going to cook in the kitchen when you’ll come.

4. The school manager is going to punish them tomorrow.

5. Children are going to jump on this trampoline next weekend.

6. Little kids are going to play in the school yard tomorrow.

Answers - Exercise 2

A

1. will shout, 2. will hug, 3. will eat, 4. will learn, 5. will have, 6. will celebrate

B

1. is going to shout, 2. are going to hug, 3. am going to eat, 4. is going to learn, 5. is going to have, 6. are going to

C

1. David's mom won't wait for him at the station tomorrow.
2. The children won't play in the schoolyard this afternoon.
3. Lots of guests won't come to the new restaurant tonight.
4. The lawyer won't shout at her the minute she'll come.
5. His aunt won't bake a cake for him next weekend.
6. They won't pass the border silently next month.

D

1. David's mom isn't going to wait for him at the station tomorrow.
2. The children aren't going to play in the schoolyard this afternoon.
3. Lots of guests aren't going to come to the new restaurant tonight.
4. The lawyer isn't going to shout at her the minute she'll come.
5. His aunt isn't going to bake a cake for him next weekend.
6. They aren't going to pass the border silently next month.

E

1. Will this man arrive to the hospital next week?
2. Will my son argue with his sister again tonight?
3. Will the dancer dance Salsa dances this evening?
4. Will they listen to music at the weekend?
5. Will the birds stay in hot countries this winter?
6. Will David's pupils make their homework tomorrow?

F

1. Is this man going to arrive to the hospital next week?
2. Is my son going to argue with his sister again tonight?
3. Is the dancer going to dance Salsa dances this evening?
4. Are they going to listen to music at the weekend?
5. Are the birds going to stay in hot countries this winter?
6. Are David's pupils going to make their homework tomorrow?

G

1. What will the detective ask tomorrow?
2. When will Doris read this book?
3. Why will this pupil copy his friend's homework?
4. How will the pretty secretary serve the audience?
5. What will this criminal rob tonight?
6. What will he give to the guard tomorrow?

H

1. What is the detective going to ask tomorrow?
2. When is Doris going to read this book?
3. Why is this pupil going to copy his friend's homework?
4. How is the pretty secretary going to serve the audience?
5. What is this criminal going to rob tonight?
6. What is he going to give to the guard tomorrow?

I

1. Who will close his shop in half an hour?
2. Who will cure the wounded bird?
3. Who will cook in the kitchen when you'll come?
4. Who will punish them tomorrow?
5. Who will jump on this trampoline next weekend?
6. Who will play in the school yard tomorrow?

J

1. Who is going to close his shop in half an hour?
2. Who is going to cure the wounded bird?
3. Who is going to cook in the kitchen when you'll come?
4. Who is going to punish them tomorrow?
5. Who is going to jump on this trampoline next weekend?
6. Who is going to play in the school yard tomorrow?