

Exercise 4

A. Complete the sentences using “will”:

1. His parents _____ (move) to another place next week.
2. The soldiers _____ (take) the train to Paris tomorrow.
3. They _____ (go) to meet him next Monday.
4. Doris _____ (write) you a letter tomorrow.
5. His aunt _____ (bake) him a cake next Friday.
6. The technician _____ (try) to solve the problem when he'll arrive.

B. Complete the sentences using “be + going to”:

1. His parents _____ (move) to another place next week.
2. The soldiers _____ (take) the train to Paris tomorrow.
3. They _____ (go) to meet him next Monday.
4. Doris _____ (write) you a letter tomorrow.
5. His aunt _____ (bake) him a cake next Friday.
6. The technician _____ (try) to solve the problem when he'll arrive.

C. Turn the sentences to negative using “will”:

1. The detectives will chase drugs dealers in the next 3 days.

2. The client will buy cookies tomorrow.

3. Richard’s sister will work from home next week.

4. I will come to see you soon.

5. I will get out in five minutes.

6. He will bring me the money next month.

D. Turn the sentences to negative using “be + going to”:

1. The detectives are going to chase drugs dealers in the next 3 days.

2. The client is going to buy cookies tomorrow.

3. Richard’s sister is going to work from home next week.

4. I am going to come to see you soon.

5. I am going to get out in five minutes.

6. He is going to bring me the money next month.

E. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “will”:

- 1. The waiter will serve the food soon.

- 2. Boris will fix the computer tonight.

- 3. They will pay the first payment for the new house next week.

- 4. They will hug each other when they'll meet.

- 5. She will dream about you tomorrow night.

- 6. Danny will drink coffee when he'll wake up.

F. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “be + going to”:

- 1. The waiter is going to serve the food soon.

- 2. Boris is going to fix the computer tonight.

- 3. They are going to pay the first payment for the new house next week.

- 4. They are going to hug each other when they'll meet.

- 5. She is going to dream about you tomorrow night.

- 6. Danny is going to drink coffee when he'll wake up.

G. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “will”:

1. The radio man will read the news in a minute.

2. We will buy a new car next year.

3. My brother will sleep in a hotel tonight.

4. The audience will shout because the show won't begin on time.

5. She will wait passionately for her turn.

6. You and I will meet at my house on Friday.

H. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “be + going to”:

1. The radio man is going to read the news in a minute.

2. We are going to buy a new car next year.

3. My brother is going to sleep in a hotel tonight.

4. The audience is going to shout because the show won't begin on time.

5. She is going to wait passionately for her turn.

6. You and I are going to meet at my house on Friday.

I. Ask questions about the subject using “will”:

1. They will argue with the owner of their apartment tomorrow.

2. A beautiful bird will stand on my window.

3. She will whisper in my ear love words tonight.

4. Those people will destroy everything when they'll come.

5. I will drink hot tea tomorrow morning.

6. Dan's sister will learn at the university next year.

J. Ask questions about the subject using “be + going to”:

1. They are going to argue with the owner of their apartment tomorrow.

2. A beautiful bird is going to stand on my window.

3. She is going to whisper in my ear love words tonight.

4. Those people are going to destroy everything when they'll come.

5. I am going to drink hot tea tomorrow morning.

6. Dan's sister is going to learn at the university next year.

Answers - Exercise 4

A

1. will move, 2. will take, 3. will go, 4. will write, 5. will bake, 6. will try

B

1. are going to move, 2. are going to take, 3. are going to go, 4. is going to write, 5. is going to bake, 6. is going to try

C

1. The detectives won't chase drugs dealers in the next 3 days.
2. The client won't buy cookies tomorrow.
3. Richard's sister won't work from home next week.
4. I won't come to see you soon.
5. I won't get out in five minutes.
6. He won't bring me the money next month.

D

1. The detectives aren't going to chase drugs dealers in the next 3 days.
2. The client isn't going to buy cookies tomorrow.
3. Richard's sister isn't going to work from home next week.
4. I am not going to come to see you soon.
5. I am not going to get out in five minutes.
6. He isn't going to bring me the money next month.

E

1. Will the waiter serve the food soon?
2. Will Boris fix the computer tonight?
3. Will they pay the first payment for the new house next week?
4. Will they hug each other when they'll meet?
5. Will she dream about you tomorrow night?
6. Will Danny drink coffee when he'll wake up?

F

1. Is the waiter going to serve the food soon?
2. Is Boris going to fix the computer tonight?
3. Are they going to pay the first payment for the new house next week?
4. Are they going to hug each other when they'll meet?
5. Is she going to dream about you tomorrow night?
6. Is Danny going to drink coffee when he'll wake up?

G

1. What will the radio man read in a minute?
2. What will we buy next year?
3. Where will my brother sleep tonight?
4. Why will the audience shout?
5. How will she wait for her turn?
6. When will you and I meet at my house?

H

1. What is the radio man going to read in a minute?
2. What are we going to buy next year?
3. Where is my brother going to sleep tonight?
4. Why is the audience going to shout?
5. How is she going to wait for her turn?
6. When are you and I going to meet at my house?

I

1. Who will argue with the owner of his apartment tomorrow?
2. What will stand on my window?
3. Who will whisper in my ear love words tonight?
4. Who will destroy everything when he'll come?
5. Who will drink hot tea tomorrow morning?
6. Who will learn at the university next year?

J

1. Who is going to argue with the owner of his apartment tomorrow?
2. Who is going to stand on my window?
3. Who is going to whisper in my ear love words tonight?
4. Who is going to destroy everything when he'll come?
5. Who is going to drink hot tea tomorrow morning?
6. Who is going to learn at the university next year?