

Exercise 8

A. Complete the sentences using “will”:

1. I _____ (arrive) next Friday.
2. Sonia _____ (work) in her office next week.
3. They _____ (find) a lot of evidences tomorrow.
4. His parents _____ (pray) in church on Sunday.
5. The furniture _____ (arrive) in a week.
6. People _____ (run) in this park next summer.

B. Complete the sentences using “be + going to”:

1. I _____ (arrive) next Friday.
2. Sonia _____ (work) in her office next week.
3. They _____ (find) a lot of evidences tomorrow.
4. His parents _____ (pray) in church on Sunday.
5. The furniture _____ (arrive) in a week.
6. People _____ (run) in this park next summer.

C. Turn the sentences to negative using “will”:

1. My sister will read this book after I'll finish it.

2. Most of the workers will come to the union meeting tonight.

3. The detective will follow this suspect until he'll catch him.

4. This secretary will type your letters tomorrow.

5. Their mother will sing a song for them tonight.

6. Dr. Brown's assistant will use this machine next week.

D. Turn the sentences to negative using “be + going to”:

1. My sister is going to read this book after I'll finish it.

2. Most of the workers are going to come to the union meeting tonight.

3. The detective is going to follow this suspect until he'll catch him.

4. This secretary is going to type your letters tomorrow.

5. Their mother is going to sing a song for them tonight.

6. Dr. Brown's assistant is going to use this machine next week.

E. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “will”:

1. They will practice for the race tonight.

2. Robert and Dan will watch a football game tomorrow.

3. David will go home early tomorrow.

4. This company will produce buttons in the future.

5. His new worker will take the car to the garage next week.

6. My parents will join me to the trip this weekend.

F. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “be + going to”:

1. They are going to practice for the race tonight.

2. Robert and Dan are going to watch a football game tomorrow.

3. David is going to go home early tomorrow.

4. This company is going to produce buttons in the future.

5. His new worker is going to take the car to the garage next week.

6. My parents are going to join me to the trip this weekend.

G. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “will”:

1. The priest will ring the church’s bell next Sunday.

2. I will sit at the left side of the table.

3. She will put the money in the bank tomorrow.

4. Dan will unpack his bags when he'll get home.

5. I will eat strawberries first thing in the morning.

6. David will hold my baby gently.

H. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “be + going to”:

1. The priest is going to ring the church’s bell next Sunday.

2. I am going to sit at the left side of the table.

3. She is going to put the money in the bank tomorrow.

4. Dan is going to unpack his bags when he'll get home.

5. I am going to eat strawberries first thing in the morning.

6. David is going to hold my baby gently.

I. Ask questions about the subject using “will”:

1. They will listen to music next weekend.

2. Dan's grandpa will paint this building.

3. The soldiers will march in a straight line.

4. The rain will fall from the sky.

5. John will visit his old parents tomorrow.

6. Grandma will pour tea to everybody tonight.

J. Ask questions about the subject using “be + going to”:

1. They are going to listen to music next weekend.

2. Dan's grandpa is going to paint this building.

3. The soldiers are going to march in a straight line.

4. The rain is going to fall from the sky.

5. John is going to visit his old parents tomorrow.

6. Grandma is going to pour tea to everybody tonight.

Answers - Exercise 8

A

1. will arrive, 2. will work, 3. will find, 4. will pray, 5. will arrive, 6. will run

B

1. am going to arrive, 2. is going to work, 3. are going to find, 4. are going to pray, 5. are going to arrive, 6. are going to run

C

1. My sister won't read this book after I'll finish it.
2. Most of the workers won't come to the union meeting tonight.
3. The detective won't follow this suspect until he'll catch him.
4. This secretary won't type your letters tomorrow.
5. Their mother won't sing a song for them tonight.
6. Dr. Brown's assistant won't use this machine next week.

D

1. My sister isn't going to read this book after I'll finish it.
2. Most of the workers aren't going to come to the union meeting tonight.
3. The detective isn't going to follow this suspect until he'll catch him.
4. This secretary isn't going to type your letters tomorrow.
5. Their mother isn't going to sing a song for them tonight.
6. Dr. Brown's assistant isn't going to use this machine next week.

E

1. Will they practice for the race tonight?
2. Will Robert and Dan watch a football game tomorrow?
3. Will David go home early tomorrow?
4. Will this company produce buttons in the future?
5. Will his new worker take the car to the garage next week?
6. Will my parents join me to the trip this weekend?

F

1. Are they going to practice for the race tonight?
2. Are Robert and Dan going to watch a football game tomorrow?
3. Is David going to go home early tomorrow?
4. Is this company going to produce buttons in the future?
5. Is his new worker going to take the car to the garage next week?
6. Are my parents going to join me to the trip this weekend?

G

1. When will the priest ring the church's bell?
2. Where will I sit?
3. Where will she put the money tomorrow?
4. What will Dan unpack when he'll get home?
5. What will I eat first thing in the morning?
6. How will David hold my baby?

H

1. When is the priest going to ring the church's bell?
2. Where am I going to sit?
3. Where is she going to put the money tomorrow?
4. What is Dan going to unpack when he'll get home?
5. What am I going to eat first thing in the morning?
6. How is David going to hold my baby?

I

1. Who will listen to music next weekend?
2. Who will paint this building?
3. Who will march in a straight line?
4. What will fall from the sky?
5. Who will visit his old parents tomorrow?
6. Who will pour tea to everybody tonight?

J

1. Who is going to listen to music next weekend?
2. Who is going to paint this building?
3. Who is going to march in a straight line?
4. What is going to fall from the sky?
5. Who is going to visit his old parents tomorrow?
6. Who is going to pour tea to everybody tonight?