

Exercise 9

A. Complete the sentences using “will”:

1. I _____ (stay) in class after school tomorrow.
2. They _____ (polish) their car next weekend.
3. The manager _____ (ring) the bell tomorrow.
4. The cook _____ (cook) bean on Friday.
5. He _____ (instruct) you how to get to his house when you'll call.
6. My neighbor _____ (leave) the building soon.

B. Complete the sentences using “be + going to”:

1. I _____ (stay) in class after school tomorrow.
2. They _____ (polish) their car next weekend.
3. The manager _____ (ring) the bell tomorrow.
4. The cook _____ (cook) bean on Friday.
5. He _____ (instruct) you how to get to his house when you'll call.
6. My neighbor _____ (leave) the building soon.

C. Turn the sentences to negative using “will”:

1. Daniela will switch all the lights in the house when she'll arrive.

2. The judge will smile at me at the end of the trial.

3. They will clean the house at the weekend.

4. I will stay at my sister's house next week.

5. I will play the piano with friends tonight.

6. Richard's sister will try to bring him all the information.

D. Turn the sentences to negative using “be + going to”:

1. Daniela is going to switch all the lights in the house when she'll arrive.

2. The judge is going to smile at me at the end of the trial.

3. They are going to clean the house at the weekend.

4. I am going to stay at my sister's house next week.

5. I am going to play the piano with friends tonight.

6. Richard's sister is going to try to bring him all the information.

E. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “will”:

1. The policeman will arrest him tomorrow.

2. Adam’s assistant will help him taking care of the patient.

3. My teacher will talk about the damage of cigarettes in the next lesson.

4. The monkey will drive your car tomorrow.

5. The president will meet the Prime Minister next month.

6. Your friends will make noise at the party tomorrow.

F. Turn the sentences to YES/NO questions using “be + going to”:

1. The policeman is going to arrest him tomorrow.

2. Adam’s assistant is going to help him taking care of the patient.

3. My teacher is going to talk about the damage of cigarettes in the next lesson.

4. The monkey is going to drive your car tomorrow.

5. The president is going to meet the Prime Minister next month.

6. Your friends are going to make noise at the party tomorrow.

G. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “will”:

1. The famous professor will arrive to the hospital tomorrow.

2. She will walk all the way home because she won't be able to drive anymore.

3. This company will provide wagons to half of the world.

4. She will talk very slowly with them.

5. My son will plant vegetables in his garden next month.

6. David's mom will cook with his wife in the kitchen tomorrow.

H. Turn the sentences to WH questions (ask about the words in italic) using “be + going to”:

1. The famous professor is going to arrive to the hospital tomorrow.

2. She is going to walk all the way home because she won't be able to drive anymore.

3. This company is going to provide wagons to half of the world.

4. She is going to talk very slowly with them.

5. My son is going to plant vegetables in his garden next month.

6. David's mom is going to cook with his wife in the kitchen tomorrow.

I. Ask questions about the subject using “will”:

1. Sharon's sister will act like a child on the show.

2. That poor woman will scream tonight.

3. My son will try to remember where the book is.

4. The fire will burn everything.

5. The manager will see you on Monday.

6. John and I will practice Math exercises at the weekend.

J. Ask questions about the subject using “be + going to”:

1. Sharon's sister is going to act like a child on the show.

2. That poor woman is going to scream tonight.

3. My son is going to try to remember where the book is.

4. The fire is going to burn everything.

5. The manager is going to see you on Monday.

6. John and I are going to practice Math exercises at the weekend.

Answers - Exercise 9

A

1. will stay, 2. will polish, 3. will ring, 4. will cook, 5. will instruct, 6. will leave

B

1. am going to stay, 2. are going to polish, 3. is going to ring, 4. is going to cook, 5. is going to instruct, 6. is going to leave

C

1. Daniela won't switch all the lights in the house when she'll arrive.
2. The judge won't smile at me at the end of the trial.
3. They won't clean the house at the weekend.
4. I won't stay at my sister's house next week.
5. I won't play the piano with friends tonight.
6. Richard's sister won't try to bring him all the information.

D

1. Daniela isn't going to switch all the lights in the house when she'll arrive.
2. The judge isn't going to smile at me at the end of the trial.
3. They aren't going to clean the house at the weekend.
4. I am not going to stay at my sister's house next week.
5. I am not going to play the piano with friends tonight.
6. Richard's sister isn't going to try to bring him all the information.

E

1. Will the policeman arrest him tomorrow?
2. Will Adam's assistant help him taking care of the patient?
3. Will my teacher talk about the damage of cigarettes in the next lesson?
4. Will the monkey drive your car tomorrow?
5. Will the president meet the Prime Minister next month?
6. Will your friends make noise at the party tomorrow?

F

1. Is the policeman going to arrest him tomorrow?
2. Is Adam's assistant going to help him taking care of the patient?
3. Is my teacher going to talk about the damage of cigarettes in the next lesson?
4. Is the monkey going to drive your car tomorrow?
5. Is the president going to meet the Prime Minister next month?
6. Are your friends going to make noise at the party tomorrow?

G

1. Where will the famous professor arrive tomorrow?
2. Why will she walk all the way home?
3. What will this company provide to half of the world?
4. How will she talk with them?
5. What will my son plant in his garden next month?
6. Where will David's mom cook with his wife tomorrow?

H

1. Where is the famous professor going to arrive tomorrow?
2. Why is she going to walk all the way home?
3. What is this company going to provide to half of the world?
4. How is she going to talk with them?
5. What is my son going to plant in his garden next month?
6. Where is David's mom going to cook with his wife tomorrow?

I

1. Who will act like a child on the show?
2. Who will scream tonight?
3. Who will try to remember where the book is?
4. What will burn everything?
5. Who will see you on Monday?
6. Who will practice Math exercises at the weekend?

J

1. Who is going to act like a child on the show?
2. Who is going to scream tonight?
3. Who is going to try to remember where the book is?
4. What is going to burn everything?
5. Who is going to see you on Monday?
6. Who is going to practice Math exercises at the weekend?